

PRO CIVITATE DEI

MMXXVI

Oratio ante Divinum Officium.

Aperi, Dómine, os meum ad benedicéndum nomen sanctum tuum: munda quoque cor meum ab ómnibus vanis, perversis et aliénis cogitatióibus; intelléctum illúmina, afféctum inflámma, ut digne, attén-te ac devóte hoc Offícium recitáre váleam, et exaudíri mérear ante conspéctum divínæ Majestátis tuæ. Per Christum Dóminum nostrum. ℟. Amen.

Dómine, in unióne illíus divínæ intentiόνis, qua ipse in terris laudes Deo persolvísti, has tibi Horas [vel hanc tibi Horam] persólvo.

Oratio post Divinum Officium.

Sacrosánctæ et indivíduæ Trinitáti, crucifíxi Dómini nostri Jesu Christi humanitáti, beatíssimæ et gloriosíssimæ sempérque Vírginis Mariæ fœcúndæ integritáti, et ómnium Sanctórum universitáti sit sempitérna laus, honor, virtus et glória ab omni creatúra, nobisque remissio ómnium peccatórum, per infinita sœcula sæculórum. ℟. Amen.

℣. Beáta víscera Mariæ Vírginis, quæ portavérunt ætérni Pátris Fílium.

℟. Et beáta úbera, quæ lactavérunt Christum Dóminum.

Pater noster & Ave María.

Ante Matutinum et omnes Horas, præterquam ad Completorium, dicitur secreto Pater noster & Ave María. In principio Matutini ac Primæ, et in fine Completorium, dicitur etiam Credo in Deum.

Pater noster, qui es in cælis. Sanctificétur nomen tuum. Advéniat regnum tuum. Fiat volúntas tua, sicut in cælo et in terra. Panem nostrum quotidiánum da nobis hódie. Et dimítte nobis débita nostra, sicut et nos dimíttimus debitoribus nostris. Et ne nos indúcas in tentatióem: Sed libera nos a malo.

Ave María, grátia plena; Dóminus tecum: benedícta tu in muliéribus, et benedíctus fructus ventris tui, Jesus. Sancta María, Mater Dei, ora pro nobis peccatóribus nunc et in hora mortis nostræ. Amen.

Credo in Deum, Patrem omnipoténtem, Creatórem cæli et terræ. Et in Jesum Christum, Fílium ejus únicum, Dóminum nostrum: qui concéptus est de Spíritu Sancto, natus ex Mariá Vírgine: passus sub Póntio Piláto, crucifíxus, mórtuus, et sepúltus: descendit ad ínferos: tértia die resurrexit a mórtuis: ascendit ad cælos, sedet ad dexteram Dei Patris omnipoténtis: inde ventúrus est judicáre vivos et mórtuos. Credo in Spíritum Sanctum, sanctam Ecclésiam cathólicam, sanctórum communióem, remissióem peccatórum, carnis resurrectiόem, vitam ætérnam. Amen.

AD MISSAM.

Introitus.

Cogitationes Cordis ejus in generatione et generationem: ut eruat a morte animas eorum et alat eos in fame. ψ. Exultate, justi, in Domino: rectos decet collaudatio. Gloria Patri. Sicut erat. Cogitationes.

Oratio.

Deus, qui nobis in Corde Filii tui, nostris vulnerato peccatis, infinitos dilectionis thesauros misericorditer largiri dignaris: † concede quæsumus; ut illi devotum pietatis nostræ præstantes obsequium, * dignæ quoque satisfactionis exhibeamus officium. Per eundem Dominum.

Epistola.

Fratres: Mihi, omnium sanctorum minimo, data est gratia hæc, in gentibus evangelizare investigabiles divitias Christi, et illuminare omnes, quæ sit dispensatio sacramenti absconditi a sæculis in Deo, qui omnia creavit: ut innotescat principatibus et potestatibus in cælestibus per Ecclesiam multiformis sapientia Dei, secundum præfinitionem sæculorum, quam fecit in Christo Jesu, Domino nostro, in quo habemus fiduciam et accessum in confidentia per fidem ejus. Hujus rei gratia flecto genua mea ad Patrem Domini nostri Jesu Christi, ex quo omnis paternitas in cælis ei in terra nominatur, ut det vobis, secundum divitias gloriæ suæ, virtute cor-Ps. 32, 11, 19; 1.

The thoughts of his heart are to all generations: to deliver them from death and preserve them in spite of famine. ψ. Exult, you just, in the Lord; praise from the upright is fitting. Glory be to the Father. As it was in the beginning. The thoughts.

O God, who hast suffered the heart of thy Son to be wounded by our sins, and in that very heart hast bestowed on us the abundant riches of thy love: grant that the devout homage of our hearts, which we render unto him, may of thy mercy be deemed a recompence acceptable in thy sight. Through the same Lord.

Eph. 3, 8 – 12, 14 – 19.

Brethren: To me, the very least of all saints, there was given this grace, to announce among the Gentiles the good tidings of the unfathomable riches of Christ, and to enlighten all men as to what is the dispensation of the mystery which has been hidden from eternity in God, Who created all things; in order that through the Church there be made known to the Principalities and the Powers in the heavens the manifold wisdom of God according to the eternal purpose which He accomplished in Christ Jesus our Lord. In Him we have assurance and confident access through faith in Him. For this reason I bend my knees to the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, from Whom all fatherhood in heaven and on earth receives its name, that He may grant you from His glorious riches to be strengthened with power through His Spirit unto the progress of the inner man; and to have Christ dwelling through faith in your hearts: so that, being rooted and grounded in love, you may be able to comprehend with all the saints what is the breadth and length and height and depth, and to know Christ's love which surpasses knowledge, in order that you may be filled unto all the fullness of God.

Graduale & Alleluia.

Good and upright is the Lord; thus He shows sinners the way. ψ. He guides the humble to justice; he teaches the humble his way.

Alleluia, alleluia. Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am meek, and humble of heart: and you will find rest for your souls. Alleluia.

Evangelium.

At that time, the Jews, since it was the Preparation Day, in order that the bodies might not remain upon the cross on the Sabbath, for that Sabbath was a solemn day, besought Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away. The soldiers therefore came and broke the legs of the first, and of the other, who had been crucified with him. But when they came to Jesus, and saw that he was already dead, they did not break his legs; but one of the soldiers opened his side with a lance, and immediately there came out blood and water. And he who saw it has borne witness, and his witness is true; and he knows that he tells the truth, that you also may believe. For these things came to pass that the Scripture might be fulroborari per Spiritum ejus in interiorem hominem, Christum habitare per fidem in cordibus vestris: in caritate radicati et fundati, ut possitis comprehendere cum omnibus sanctis, quæ sit latitudo, et longitudo, et sublimitas, et profundum: scire etiam supereminentem scientiæ caritatem Christi, ut impleamini in omnem plenitudinem Dei.

Ps. 24, 8 – 9; Matt. 11, 29.

Dulcis et rectus Dominus: propter hoc legem dabit delinquentibus in via. ψ. Diriget mansuetos in iudicio, docebit mites vias suas.

Alleluia, alleluia. Tollite iugum meum super vos, et discite a me, quia mitis sum et humilis Corde, et inveniatis requiem animabus vestris. Alleluia.

Joann. 19, 31 – 37.

In illo tempore: Judæi, quoniam Parascève erat, ut non remanerent in cruce corpora sabbato, erat enim magnus dies ille sabbati, rogaverunt Pilatum, ut frangerentur eorum crura, et tollerentur. Venérunt ergo milites: et primi quidem fregérunt crura et alterius, qui crucifixus est cum eo. Ad Jesum autem cum venissent, ut viderunt eum jam mortuum, non fregérunt ejus crura, sed unus militum lancea latus ejus aperuit, et continuo exiit sanguis et aqua. Et qui vidit, testimonium perhibuit: et verum est testimonium ejus. Et ille scit quia vera dicit, ut et vos credatis. Facta sunt enim hæc ut Scriptura impleretur: Os non comminuetis ex eo. Et iterum alia Scriptura dicit: Vidébunt in quem transfixerunt.

Offertorium.

Postcommunio.

Præbeant nobis, Dómine Jesu, divínium tua sancta fervórem: quo dulcíssimi Cordis tui suavitate percé-filled: “Not a bone of him shall you break.” And again another Scripture says: “They shall look upon him whom they have pierced.”

Ps. 68, 21.

My heart expected reproach and misery; I looked for sympathy, but there was none; and for comforters, and I found none.

Look, we beseech thee, o Lord, upon the heart of thy beloved Son, with its boundless love, so that what we offer, may be an acceptable gift in thy sight and an atonement for our sins. Through the same Lord.

It is truly meet and just, right and for our salvation, that we should at all times, and in all places, give thanks unto Thee, O holy Lord, Father almighty, everlasting God; Who didst will that Thine only-begotten Son, while hanging on the cross, should be pierced by a soldier's spear, that the Heart thus opened, a shrine of divine bounty, should pour out on us streams of mercy and grace, and that what never ceased to burn with love for us, should be a resting-place to the devout, and open as a refuge of salvation to the penitent. And therefore with angels and archangels, with thrones and dominions, and with all the hosts of the heavenly army, we sing the hymn of thy glory, evermore saying:

Joann. 19, 34.

One of the soldiers opened his side with a lance, and immediately there came out blood and water.

May thy sacrament, o Lord Jesus, give us holy zeal, so that, seeing the sweetness of thy most loving heart, we may learn to despise the things of earth and love those of heaven. Who livest and reignest.

Eccli. 15, 5; Ps. 91, 2.

In the midst of the assembly he opened his mouth; and the Lord filled him with the spirit of wisdom and understanding; he clothed him with a robe of glory. ψ. It is good to give thanks to the Lord, to sing praise to thy name, Most High. Glory be to the Father. As it was in the beginning. In the midst.

May the solemn feast of blessed Anthony, thy confessor and Doctor, make thy church rejoice, o God, so that, ever sustained by spiritual help, she may deserve to reap everlasting joy. Through our Lord.

2. O God, who hast suffered the heart of thy Son to be wounded by our sins, and in that very heart hast bestowed on us the abundant riches of thy love: grant that the devout homage of our hearts, which we render unto him, may of thy mercy be deemed a recompence acceptable in thy sight. Through the same Lord.

2 Tim. 4, 1–8.

Beloved: I charge you, in the sight of God and Christ Jesus, who will judge the living and the dead by his coming and by his kingdom, preach the word, be urgent in season, out of season; reprove, entreat, rebuke with all patience and teaching. For there will come a time when they will not endure the sound doctrine; but having itching ears, will heap up to themselves teachers according to their own lusts, and they will turn away their hearing from the truth and turn aside rather to fables. But be watchful in all things, bear with tribulation patiently, work as a preacher of the Gospel, fulfill your ministry. As for me, I am already being poured out in sacrifice, and the time of my deliverance is at hand. I have fought the good fight, I have finished the course, I have kept the faith. For the rest, there is laid up for me a crown of justice, which the Lord, the just Judge, will give to me in that day; yet not to me only, but also to those who love his coming.

Graduale & Alleluia.

The mouth of the just shall meditate wisdom and his tongue shall speak judgment. ψ. The law of his God is in his heart, and his steps shall not be supplanted.

Alleluia, alleluia. The Lord loved him and beautified him and clothed him with a robe of glory. Alleluia.

Evangelium.

At that time, Jesus said to his disciples: You are the salt of the earth. But if the salt lose its savour, wherewith shall it be salted? It is good for nothing any more but to be cast out, and to be trodden on by men. You are the light of the world. A city seated on a mountain cannot be hid. Neither do men light a candle and put it under a bushel, but upon a candlestick, that it may shine to all that are in the house. So let your light shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father who is in heaven. Do not think that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets. I am not come to destroy, but to fulfill. For amen I say unto you, till heaven and earth pass, one jot, or one tittle shall not pass of the law, till all be fulfilled. He therefore that shall break one of these least commandments, and shall so teach men, shall be called the least in the kingdom of heaven. But he that shall do and teach, he shall be called great in the king-enim jam delibor, et tempus resolutionis meae instat. Bonum certamen certavi, cursum consummavi, fidem servavi. In reliquo repõsita est mihi corõna justitiæ, quam reddet mihi Dõminus in illa die, justus iudex: non solum autem mihi, sed et iis, qui diligunt adventum ejus.

Ps. 36, 30 – 31; Eccli. 45, 9.

IN illo témpore: Dixit Jesus discipulis suis: Vos estis sal terræ. Quod si sal evanúerit, in quo saliétur? Ad nihilum valet ultra, nisi ut mittátur foras, et conculcétur ab homínibus. Vos estis lux mundi. Non potest civitas abscondi supra montem põsita. Neque accendunt lucernam, et ponunt eam sub módio, sed super candelábrum, ut lúceat ómnibus, qui in domo sunt. Sic luceat lux vestra coram homínibus, ut vídeant ópera vestra bona, et gloríficent Patrem vestrum, qui in cælis est. Nolíte putáre, quóniam veni sólvere legem aut prophétas: non veni sólvere, sed adimplére. Amen, quippe dico vobis, donec tránseat cælum et terra, jota unum aut unus apex non præteríbit a lege, donec ómnia fiant. Qui ergo sólverit unum de mandátis istis mínimis, et docúerit sic hómínes, mínimus vocábitur in regno cælórum: qui autem fécerit et docúerit, hic magnus vocábitur in regno cælórum.

Epístola.

Caríssimi: Humiliámini sub poténti manu Dei, ut vos exáltet in témpore visitatiónis: omnem sollicitúdinem vestram projiciéntes in eum, quóniam ipsi cura est de vobis. Sóbrii esto et vigiláte: quia adversárius veſter diábolus tamquam leo rúgiens circuit, quærens, quem dévoret: cui resístite fortes in fide: sciéntes eándem passió-nem ei, quæ in mundo est, veſtræ fraternitáti fferi. Deus autem omnis grátia, qui vocávit nos in æténam suam glóriam in Christo Jesu, módicum passos and take away all my sins, o my God. ψ. To thee, I lift up my soul, o Lord. In thee, o my God, I trust; let me not be put to shame. Glory be to the Father. As it was in the beginning. Look toward me.

O God, the protector of all them that trust in thee, without whom nothing is strong, nothing is holy; increase and multiply upon us thy mercy, that thou being our ruler and guide, we may so pass through things temporal, that we finally lose not the things eternal. Through our Lord.

2. Hear, we beseech thee, o Lord, our prayers which we offer unto thee on the feast of blessed Basil, thy bishop and confessor, and absolve us from all our sins by the merits and prayers of him who had the grace to serve thee worthily.

3. O God, who hast suffered the heart of thy Son to be wounded by our sins, and in that very heart hast bestowed on us the abundant riches of thy love: grant that the devout homage of our hearts, which we render unto him, may of thy mercy be deemed a recompence acceptable in thy sight. Through the same Lord.

1 Petri 5, 6 – II.

Beloved: Humble yourselves under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in the time of visitation; cast all your anxiety upon him, because he cares for you. Be sober, be watchful! For your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, goes about seeking someone to devour. Resist him, steadfast in the faith, knowing that the same suffering befalls your brethren all over the world. But the God of all grace, who has called us unto his eternal glory in Christ Jesus, will himself, after we have suffered a little while, perfect, strengthen and establish us. To him is the glory and the dominion forever and ever. Amen.

Graduale & Alleluia.

Cast your care upon the Lord, and He will support you. ψ. When I called upon the Lord, he heard my voice from those who war against me.

Alleluia, alleluia. A just judge is God, strong and patient; is he angry every day? Alleluia.

Evangelium.

At that time, the publicans and sinners were drawing near to him to listen to him. And the Pharisees and the scribes murmured, saying, "This man welcomes sinners and eats with them." But he spoke to them this parable, saying, "What man of you having a hundred sheep, and losing one of them, does not leave the ninety-nine in the desert, and go after that which is lost, until he finds it? And when he has found it, he lays it upon his shoulders rejoicing. And on coming home he calls together his friends and neighbors, saying to them, 'Rejoice with me, because I have found my sheep that was lost.' I say to you that, even so, there will be joy in heaven over one sinner who repents, more than over ninety-nine just who have no need of repentance. Or what woman, having ten drachmas, if she loses one drachma, does not light a lamp and sweep the house and search carefully until she finds it? And when she has found it, she calls together her friends and neighbors, saying, 'Rejoice with me, for I have found the drachma that I had lost.' Even so, I say to you, there will be joy among the angels of God over one sinner who repents."

Offertorium.

They trust in thee who cherish thy name, o Lord, for thou forsakeest not ipse perficiet, confirmabit solidabitque. Ipsi gloria et imperium in saecula saeculorum. Amen.

Ps. 54, 23, 17, 19; 7, 2.

Jacta cogitatum tuum in Domino: et ipse te enutriet. ψ. Dum clamarem ad Dominum, exaudivit vocem meam ab his, qui appropinquant mihi.

Aleluia, alleluia. Deus iudex iustus, fortis et pateriens, numquid irascitur per singulos dies? Alleluia.

Luc. 15, 1 – 10.

In illo tempore: Erant appropinquantes ad Jesum publicani et peccatores, ut audirent illum. Et murmurabant pharisaei et scribae, dicentes: Quia hic peccatores recipit et manducat cum illis. Et ait ad illos parabola istam, dicens: Quis ex vobis homo, qui habet centum oves: et si perdiderit unam ex illis, nonne dimittit nonaginta novem in deserto, et vadit ad illam, quae perierat, donec inveniat eam? Et cum invenerit eam, imponit in humeros suos gaudens: et veniens domum, convocat amicos et vicinos, dicens illis: Congratulamini mihi, quia inveni ovem meam, quae perierat? Dico vobis, quod ita gaudium erit in caelo super uno peccatore poenitentiam agente, quam super nonaginta novem iustis, qui non indigent poenitentia. Aut quae mulier habens drachmas decem, si perdiderit drachmam unam, nonne accendit lucernam, et everrit domum, et quaerit diligenter, donec inveniat? Et cum invenerit, convocat amicas et vicinas, dicens: Congratulamini mihi, quia inveni drachmam, quam perdideram? Ita dico vobis: gaudium erit coram Angelis Dei super uno peccatore poenitentiam agente.

Communio.

Dico vobis: gáudium est Angelis
Dei super uno peccatóre poeni-those who seek thee. Sing praise to the Lord enthroned in Sion, for he has not forgotten the cry of the afflicted.

Look favorably, o Lord, upon the offerings of thy prayerful church and grant that those who believe may, in continual holiness, partake of them for their salvation. Through our Lord.

2. May the annual festival of blessed Basil, thy confessor and bishop, we beseech thee, o Lord, render us pleasing to thy loving kindness, so that this service of sacred propitiation may be a blessed recompense for him and secure for us the gifts of thy grace.

3. Look, we beseech thee, o Lord, upon the heart of thy beloved Son, with its boundless love, so that what we offer, may be an acceptable gift in thy sight and an atonement for our sins.
Through the same Lord.

It is truly meet and just, right and for our salvation, that we should at all times, and in all places, give thanks unto Thee, O holy Lord, Father almighty, everlasting God; Who didst will that Thine only-begotten Son, while hanging on the cross, should be pierced by a soldier's spear, that the Heart thus opened, a shrine of divine bounty, should pour out on us streams of mercy and grace, and that what never ceased to burn with love for us, should be a resting-place to the devout, and open as a refuge of salvation to the penitent. And therefore with angels and archangels, with thrones and dominions, and with all the hosts of the heavenly army, we sing the hymn of thy glory, evermore saying:

Luc. 15, 10.

I say to you: there is joy among the angels of God over one sinner who repents.

Postcommunio.

May the holy things of which we have partaken bring us to life and prepare for thy everlasting mercy those whom thou hast cleansed from sin. Through our Lord.

2. O God, who rewards faithful souls, grant that, through the prayers of blessed Basil, thy confessor and bishop, whose hallowed feast we are keeping, we may obtain pardon for our sins.

3. May thy sacrament, o Lord Jesus, give us holy zeal, so that, seeing the sweetness of thy most loving heart, we may learn to despise the things of earth and love those of heaven. Who livest and reignest.

Martyrologium.

June 16th 2026, the first day of the Moon, were born into the better life: At Besançon, in Gaul, the holy martyrs Ferreolus a Priest and Ferrutio a Deacon, who were sent forth by the blessed Irenaeus, Bishop (of Lyon,) to preach the Word of God, whereafter they were diverse ways tormented and then beheaded under Claudius the judge. At Tarsus, in Cilicia, under the Emperor Diocletian, the holy martyrs Quiricus and his mother Julitta. Quiricus was a little boy of three years old when his mother was horribly scourged before the President Alexander, he vehemently wept and lamented her, whereupon he was killed by being dashed against the steps of the judgment-seat. Julitta, after horrid stripes and grievous torments, was beheaded, and so finished her testimony. At Mainz, the holy martyrs Aureus and his sister Justina, and the others who were at Communion in the Church when they were massacred by the Huns, who were wasting Germany, (in the year 451). At Limasol, in Cyprus, holy Tycho, Bishop (of that see,) in the time of the Emperor Theodosius the younger. At Lyon, (in the year 551,) the blessed Aurelian, Bishop of Arles. At Nantes, in Brittany, (in the year 310,) the holy Confessor Similian, Bishop (of that see.) At Meissen, in Germany, (in the year 1106,) holy Benno, Bishop (of that see.) At the village of La Louvesc, in the Diocese of Vienne, in the Ardèche, (in the year 1640,) the holy Confessor John Francis Regis, of the Society of Jesus, a man of wonderful love and long-suffering in seeking the salvation of souls, whom Pope Clement XII added to the list of the Saints. In Brabant, (in the year 1246,) the holy Virgin Lutgard.

AD MISSAM.

Introitus.

The thoughts of his heart are to all generations: to deliver them from death and preserve them in spite of famine. ψ. Exult, you just, in the Lord; praise from the upright is fitting. Glory be to the Father. As it was in the beginning. The thoughts.

Oratio.

O God, who hast suffered the heart of thy Son to be wounded by our sins, and in that very heart hast bestowed on us the abundant riches of thy love: grant that the devout homage of our hearts, which we render unto him, may of thy mercy be deemed a recompence acceptable in thy sight. Through the same Lord.

2. Grant o Lord, we pray, that through the intercession of thy holy martyrs Vitus, Modestus and Crescentia, thy church be not high-minded, but grow in that humility which is pleasing to thee, so that despising evil, she may practice whatever is good with unbounded charity.

3. Grant us, thy servants, o Lord God, we beseech thee to enjoy lasting health of mind and body; and by the intercession of glorious and blessed Mary, ever Virgin, may we be delivered from present sorrow and partake to the full of eternal happiness. Through our Lord.

Evangelium.

In illo témpore: Judæi, quóniam Parascève erat, ut non remanérent in cruce córpora sábbato, erat enim magnus dies ille sábbati, rogavérunt Pilátum, ut nounce among the Gentiles the good tidings of the unfathomable riches of Christ, and to enlighten all men as to what is the dispensation of the mystery which has been hidden from eternity in God, Who created all things; in order that through the Church there be made known to the Principalities and the Powers in the heavens the manifold wisdom of God according to the eternal purpose which He accomplished in Christ Jesus our Lord. In Him we have assurance and confident access through faith in Him. For this reason I bend my knees to the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, from Whom all fatherhood in heaven and on earth receives its name, that He may grant you from His glorious riches to be strengthened with power through His Spirit unto the progress of the inner man; and to have Christ dwelling through faith in your hearts: so that, being rooted and grounded in love, you may be able to comprehend with all the saints what is the breadth and length and height and depth, and to know Christ's love which surpasses knowledge, in order that you may be filled unto all the fullness of God.

Ps. 24, 8 – 9; Matt. 11, 29.

Good and upright is the Lord; thus He shows sinners the way. ψ. He guides the humble to justice; he teaches the humble his way.

Alleluia, alleluia. Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am meek, and humble of heart: and you will find rest for your souls. Alleluia.

Joann. 19, 31 – 37.

At that time, the Jews, since it was the Preparation Day, in order that the bodies might not remain upon the cross on the Sabbath, for that Sabbath was a solemn day, besought Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away. The soldiers therefore came and broke the legs of the first, and of the other, who had been crucified with him. But when they came to Jesus, and saw that he was already dead, they did not break his legs; but one of the soldiers opened his side with a lance, and immediately there came out blood and water. And he who saw it has borne witness, and his witness is true; and he knows that he tells the truth, that you also may believe. For these things came to pass that the Scripture might be fulfilled: "Not a bone of him shall you break." And again another Scripture says: "They shall look upon him whom they have pierced."

Look, we beseech thee, o Lord, upon the heart of thy beloved Son, with its boundless love, so that what we offer, may be an acceptable gift in thy sight and an atonement for our sins. Through the same Lord.

2. As the gifts, we offer in honor of thy saints, o Lord, bear witness to the glory of thy divine power; so may they win for us the benefits of thy salvation.

3. Through thy mercy, o Lord, and the intercession of blessed Mary ever Virgin, may this oblation obtain for us prosperity and peace both now and forever. Through our Lord.

The thoughts of his heart are to all generations: to deliver them from death and preserve them in spite of famine. ψ. Exult, you just, in the Lord; praise from the upright is fitting. Glory be to the Father. As it was in the beginning. The thoughts.

O God, who hast suffered the heart of thy Son to be wounded by our sins, and in that very heart hast bestowed on us the abundant riches of thy love: grant that the devout homage of our hearts, which we render unto him, may of thy mercy be deemed a recompence acceptable in thy sight. Through the same Lord.

2. Grant us, thy servants, o Lord God, we beseech thee to enjoy lasting health of mind and body; and by the intercession of glorious and blessed Mary, ever Virgin, may we be delivered from present sorrow and partake to the full of eternal happiness.

Epistola.

Brethren: To me, the very least of all saints, there was given this grace, to announce among the Gentiles the good tidings of the unfathomable riches of Christ, and to enlighten all men as to what is the dispensation of the mystery which has been hidden from eternity in God, Who created all things; in order that through the Church there be made known to the Principalities and the Powers in the heavens the manifold wisdom of God according to the eternal purpose which He accomplished in Christ Jesus our Lord. In Him we have assurance and confident access through faith in Him. For this reason I bend my knees to the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, from Whom all fatherhood in heaven and on earth receives its name, that He may grant you from His glorious riches to be strengthened with power through His Spirit unto the progress of the inner man; and to have Christ dwelling through faith in your hearts: so that, being rooted and grounded in love, you may be able to comprehend with all the saints what is the breadth and length and height and depth, and to know Christ's love which surpasses knowledge, in order that you may be filled unto all the fullness of God.

At that time, the Jews, since it was the Preparation Day, in order that the bodies might not remain upon the cross on the Sabbath, for that Sabbath was a solemn day, besought Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away. The soldiers therefore came and broke the legs of the first, and of the other, who had been crucified with him. But when they came to Jesus, and saw that he was already dead, they did not break his legs; but one of the soldiers opened his side with a lance, and immediately there came out blood and water. And he who saw it has borne witness, and his witness is true; and he knows that he tells the truth, that you also may believe. For these things came to pass that the Scripture might be fulfilled: “Not a bone of him shall you break.” And again another Scripture says: “They shall look upon him whom they have pierced.”

June 18th 2026, the third day of the Moon, were born into the better life: At Edessa in Mesopotamia, St. Ephraem, deacon of the church of Edessa in the time of Emperor Valens and confessor. After suffering many trials for the faith of Chriſt and gaining great renown for holiness and learning, he went to reſt in the Lord. He was declared a doctór of the Universal Church by Pope Benediſt xv. At Rome, on the Ardeatine Way, in the persecution of Diocletian, the birthday of the saintly brothers Mark and Marcellian, martyrs, who were arreſted by the judge Fabian, tied to a ſtake, and had sharp nails driven into their feet. Because they would not ceſe praising the name of Chriſt they were pierced through the ſides with lances, and thus went to the kingdom of heaven with the glory of martyrdom. At Malaga in Spain, the holy martyrs Cyriacus and the virgin Paula, who were overwhelmed with ſtones, and yielded up their ſouls to God. At Tripoli in Phoenicia, in the time of the governor Adrian, St. Leontius, a ſoldier, who attained the crown of martyrdom through bitter torments together with the tribune Hypatius and Theodulus, whom he had converted to Chriſt. Upon the ſame day, (at Nicomedia,) St. Aetherius, martyr, in the persecution of Diocletian. After enduring fire and other torments, he was put to death with the ſword. At Alexandria, the paſſion of St. Marina, virgin. At Bordeaux, (in the fifth century,) the holy Confessor Amandus, Biſhop (of that ſee.) At Sacca, in Sicily, (likewiſe in the fifth century, the holy Hermit Calogerus, whoſe holineſs is chiefly manifeſted in delivering them that are vexed with evil spirits. At Schoenaug, (in the year 1165,) the holy Virgin Elizabeth, celebrated for her observance of the monastic life.

Eph. 3, 8 – 12, 14 – 19.

Brethren: To me, the very least of all saints, there was given this grace, to announce among the Gentiles the good tidings of the unfathomable riches of Christ, and to enlighten all men as to what is the dispensation of the mystery which has been hidden from eternity in God, Who created all things; in order that through the Church there be made known to the Principalities and the Powers in the heavens the manifold wisdom of God according to the eternal purpose which He accomplished in Christ Jesus our Lord. In Him we have assurance and confident access through faith in Him. For this reason I bend my knees to the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, from Whom all fatherhood in heaven and on earth receives its name, that He may grant you from His glorious riches to be strengthened with power through His Spirit unto the progress of the inner man; and to have Christ dwelling through faith in your hearts: so that, being rooted and grounded in love, you may be able to comprehend with all the saints what is the breadth and length and height and depth, and to know Christ's love which surpasses knowledge, in order that you may be filled unto all the fullness of God.

Ps. 24, 8 – 9; Matt. 11, 29.

Good and upright is the Lord; thus He shows sinners the way. ψ. He guides the humble to justice; he teaches the humble his way.

Alleluia, alleluia. Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am meek, and humble of heart: and you will find rest for your souls. Alleluia.

Evangelium.

At that time, the Jews, since it was the Preparation Day, in order that the bodies might not remain upon the cross on the Sabbath, for that Sabbath was a solemn day, besought Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away. The soldiers therefore came and broke the legs of the first, and of the other, who had been crucified with him. But when they came to Jesus, and saw that he was already dead, they did not break his legs; but one of the soldiers opened his side with a lance, and immediately there came out blood and water. And he who saw it has borne witness, and his witness is true; and he knows that he tells the truth, that you also may believe. For these things came to pass that the Scripture might be fulfilled: "Not a bone of him shall you break." And again another Scripture says: "They shall look upon him whom they have pierced."

It is truly meet and just, right and for our salvation, that we should at all times, and in all places, give thanks unto Thee, O holy Lord, Father almighty, everlasting God; Who didst will that Thine only-begotten Son, while hanging on the cross, should be pierced by a soldier's spear, that the Heart thus opened, a shrine of divine bounty, should pour out on us streams of mercy and grace, and that what never ceased to burn with love for us, should be a resting-place to the devout, and open as a refuge of salvation to the penitent. And therefore with angels and archangels, with thrones and dominions, and with all the hosts of the heavenly army, we sing the hymn of thy glory, evermore saying:

Martyrologium.

June 19th, 2026, the fifth day of the Moon, were born into the better life: The Octave of the most Sacred Heart of Jesus. At Florence, St. Juliana Falconieri, virgin, foundress of the Sisters of the Order of the Servants of the Blessed Virgin Mary, who was placed among the holy virgins by the Sovereign Pontiff, Clement XII. At Milan, (in the first century,) the holy martyrs Gervase and Protase, brothers. The former, by order of the judge Aſtadius, was scourged with leaded whips for so long that he expired. The latter, after being scourged with rods, was beheaded. Through divine revelation their bodies were found by St. Ambrose. They were partly covered with blood, and as free from corruption as if they had been put to death that very day. When the translation took place, a blind man recovered his sight by touching their relics, and many persons possessed by demons were delivered. At the monastery in the valley of Caſtro in Piceno, the birthday of St. Romuald, anchorite, a native of Ravenna. He was the founder of the Camaldolese monks, and he restored and greatly extended monastic discipline, which was much relaxed in Italy. His feast is observed on the 7th of February, on which day his sacred relics were transferred to Fabriano. At Arezzo in Tuscany, the holy martyrs Gaudentius, bishop, and Culmatius, deacon, who were murdered by the furious heathen, during the reign of Valentinian. Also, St. Boniface, martyr, a disciple of blessed Romuald, who was sent by the Roman Pontiff, Gregory V, to preach the Gospel in Russia. Having passed through fire uninjured, and baptized the king and his people, he was killed by the enraged brother of the king, and thus gained the palm of martyrdom which he ardently desired. At Ravenna, (likewise in the first century,) St. Ursicinus, martyr, who remained constant through many torments in the confession of martyrdom by being beheaded. At Sozopolis, under the governor Domitian, during the persecution of Trajan, St. Zosimus, martyr, who suffered bitter tortures, was beheaded, and thus triumphantly went to heaven.

AD MISSAM.

Introitus.

In the midſt of the assembly he opened his mouth; and the Lord filled him with the spirit of wisdom and underſtanding; he clothed him with a robe of glory. ψ. It is good to give thanks to the Lord, to ſing praise to thy name, Moſt High. Glory be to the Father. As it was in the beginning. In the midſt.

Oratio.

O God, who willed to enlighten thy church by the wondrous learning and glorious merits of the life of blessed Ephrem, thy confessor and Doctör, we humbly pray You, that, by his pleading, thou wilt ſhield her with thy laſting power againſt the ſnares of error and evil. Through our Lord.

2. O God, who haſt ſuffered the heart of thy Son to be wounded by our ſins, and in that very heart haſt beſtowed on us the abundant riches of thy love: grant that the devout homage of our hearts, which we render unto him, may of thy mercy be deemed a recompence acceptable in thy ſight.

3. Grant, we beſeech thee, almighty God, that we who celebrate the anniversary of the death of thy holy martyrs, Mark and Marcellianus, may by their intercession be delivered from all the evils that threaten us. Through our Lord.

Evangelium.

In illo témpore: Dixit Jesus discipulis suis: Vos estis sal terræ. Quod si sal evanúerit, in quo saliétur? Ad níhilum valet ultra, nisi ut mittátur foras, et conculcétur ab homínibus. Vos estis lux mundi. Non potešt cívitas abscón-di supra montem pósita. Neque accéndunt lucérnam, et ponunt eam sub módio, sed super candelábrum, ut lúceat ómnibus, qui in domo sunt. Sic luceat lux veštra coram homínibus, ut vídeant ópera veštra bona, et gloríficent Patrem veštrum, qui in cælis est. Nolíte putá-re, quóniam veni sólvare legem aut probe urgent in season, out of season; reprove, entreat, rebuke with all patience and teaching. For there will come a time when they will not endure the sound doctrine; but having itching ears, will heap up to themselves teachers according to their own lusts, and they will turn away their hearing from the truth and turn aside rather to fables. But be watchful in all things, bear with tribulation patiently, work as a preacher of the Gospel, fulfill your ministry. As for me, I am already being poured out in sacrifice, and the time of my deliverance is at hand. I have fought the good fight, I have finished the course, I have kept the faith. For the rest, there is laid up for me a crown of justice, which the Lord, the just Judge, will give to me in that day; yet not to me only, but also to those who love his coming.

Ps. 36, 30 – 31; Eccli. 45, 9.

The mouth of the just shall meditate wisdom and his tongue shall speak judgment. ψ. The law of his God is in his heart, and his steps shall not be supplanted.

Alleluia, alleluia. The Lord loved him and beautified him and clothed him with a robe of glory. Alleluia.

Matt. 5, 3 – 19.

At that time, Jesus said to his disciples: You are the salt of the earth. But if the salt lose its savour, wherewith shall it be salted? It is good for nothing any more but to be cast out, and to be trodden on by men. You are the light of the world. A city seated on a mountain cannot be hid. Neither do men light a candle and put it under a bushel, but upon a candlestick, that it may shine to all that are in the house. So let your light shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father who is in heaven. Do not think that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets. I am not come to destroy, but to fulfill. For amen I say unto you, till heaven and earth pass, one jot, or one tittle shall not pass of the law, till all be fulfilled. He therefore that shall break one of these least commandments, and shall so teach men, shall be called the least in the kingdom of heaven. But he that shall do and teach, he shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven.

Offertorium.

The just shall flourish like the palm tree: he shall grow up like the cedar of Libanus.

Secreta.

May the pious prayer of holy Ephrem thy confessor and illustrious Doctor be not wanting to us, o Lord, but make our offerings acceptable to thee and ever win for us thy mercy. Through our Lord.

2. Look, we beseech thee, o Lord, upon the heart of thy beloved Son, with its boundless love, so that what we offer, may be an acceptable gift in thy sight and an atonement for our sins.

3. Sanctify the offerings dedicated to You, O Lord, and through the intercession of blessed Mark and Marcellianus, Your Martyrs, look upon us with mercy because of them. Through our Lord.

Præfatio de sacratissimo Cordis Jesu.

It is truly meet and just, right and for our salvation, that we should at all times, and in all places, give thanks unto Thee, O holy Lord, Father almighty, everlasting God; Who didst will that Thine only-begotten Son, while hanging on the cross, should be pierced by a soldier's spear, that the Heart thus opened, a shrine of divine bounty, should pour out on us streams of mercy and grace, and that what never ceased to burn with love for us, should be a Martyrologium.

June 20th 2026, the fifth day of the Moon, were born into the better life: The holy martyr Pope Silverius. He refused to restore the (Eutychian) heretic Anthimus, who had been deposed (from the Patriarchate of Constantinople) by his predecessor, Pope Agapitus, and in consequence of this, through a plot of the wicked Empress Theodora, was exiled by Bellisarius to the island of Ponza, where he died for the Catholic faith, broken down by sufferings and hardships, (in the year 538.) At Rome, the holy Novatus, son of the blessed Senator Pudens and brother of the holy Priest Timothy, and of Christ's holy Virgins Pudentiana and Praxedes, who were taught in the faith by the Apostles. Their house was turned into a church, and called that of St. Pastor, (in the second century.) At Tomi, in Pontus, the holy martyrs Paul and Cyriacus. At Petra, in Palestíne, the holy Macarius, Bishop (of that see) who suffered many things of the Arians, and was exiled to Africa, where he fell asleep in the Lord, (in the fourth century.) At Seville, in Spain, (in the year 630,) the holy Virgin Florentina, sister of the holy Leander, Bishop (of Seville,) and holy Isidore, Bishop (of Seville.)

AD MISSAM.

Introitus.

The thoughts of his heart are to all generations: to deliver them from death and preserve them in spite of famine. ψ. Exult, you just, in the Lord; praise from the upright is fitting. Glory be to the Father. As it was in the beginning. The thoughts.

Oratio.

O God, who hast suffered the heart of thy Son to be wounded by our sins, and in that very heart hast bestowed on us the abundant riches of thy love: grant that the devout homage of our hearts, which we render unto him, may of thy mercy be deemed a recompence acceptable in thy sight. Through the same Lord.

2. O God, who, when thy blessed handmaiden Juliana was lying sick unto death wast pleased in wondrous wise to comfort her with the Precious Body of thy Son, be thou entreated for the same thy servant's sake, and grant unto us also the same comfort in our last agony, that we may go in the strength of that Meat unto our very fatherland, which is in heaven.

3. O God, who gladden us by the annual festival of thy martyrs Gervasii and Protasi, grant that we may be inspired by the example of those in whose merits we rejoice. Through our Lord.

Epistola.

Brethren: To me, the very least of all saints, there was given this grace, to announce among the Gentiles the good tidings of the unfathomable riches of Christ, and to enlighten all men as to what is the dispensation of the mystery which has been hidden from eternity in God, Who created all things; in or-

Evangelium.

In illo témpore: Judæi, quóniam Para-scève erat, ut non remanérent in cruce córpora sábbato, erat enim magnus dies ille sábbati, rogavérunt Pilátum, ut frangeréntur eórum crura, et tollerén-tur. Venérunt ergo mílites: et primi quidem fregérunt crura et alterius, qui crucifíxus est cum eo. Ad Jesum autem cum veníssent, ut vidérunt eum jam mórtuum, non fregérunt ejus crura, sed der that through the Church there be made known to the Principalities and the Powers in the heavens the manifold wisdom of God according to the eter-nal purpose which He accomplished in Christ Jesus our Lord. In Him we have assurance and confident access through faith in Him. For this reason I bend my knees to the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, from Whom all father-hood in heaven and on earth receives its name, that He may grant you from His glorious riches to be strengthened with power through His Spirit unto the progress of the inner man; and to have Christ dwelling through faith in your hearts: so that, being rooted and grounded in love, you may be able to comprehend with all the saints what is the breadth and length and height and depth, and to know Christ's love which surpasses knowledge, in order that you may be filled unto all the fullness of God.

Ps. 24, 8 – 9; Matt. 11, 29.

Good and upright is the Lord; thus He shows sinners the way. Ps. He guides the humble to justice; he teaches the hum-ble his way.

Alleluia, alleluia. Take my yoke upon you, and learn from me, for I am meek, and humble of heart: and you will find rest for your souls. Alleluia.

Joann. 19, 31 – 37.

At that time, the Jews, since it was the Preparation Day, in order that the bod-ies might not remain upon the cross on the Sabbath, for that Sabbath was a solemn day, besought Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away. The soldiers there-fore came and broke the legs of the first, and of the other, who had been cruci-fied with him. But when they came to Jesus, and saw that he was already dead, they did not break his legs; but one of the soldiers opened his side with a lance, and immediately there came out blood and water. And he who saw it has borne witness, and his witness is true; and he knows that he tells the truth, that you also may believe. For these things came to pass that the Scripture might be fulfilled: "Not a bone of him shall you break." And again another Scripture says: "They shall look upon him whom they have pierced."

Offertorium.

My heart expected reproach and misery; I looked for sympathy, but there was none; and for comforters, and I found none.

Secreta.

Look, we beseech thee, o Lord, upon the heart of thy beloved Son, with its boundless love, so that what we offer, may be an acceptable gift in thy sight and an atonement for our sins. Through the same Lord.

2. May the service of thy holy people be acceptable to thee, o Lord, and honorable to thy saints, through whose merits we know that we have received help in trouble.

3. Be appeased by the gifts we offer thee, o Lord, and through the intercession of thy holy martyrs Gervasii and Protasi, safeguard us from all dangers. Through our Lord.

Præfatio de sacratissimo Cordis Jesu.

It is truly meet and just, right and for our salvation, that we should at all times, and in all places, give thanks unto Thee, O holy Lord, Father almighty, everlasting God; Who didst will that Thine only-begotten Son, while hanging on the cross, should be pierced by a soldier's spear, that the Heart thus opened, a shrine of divine bounty, unus militum lancea latus ejus aperuit, et continuo exiit sanguis et aqua. Et qui vidit, testimonium perhibuit: et verum est testimonium ejus. Et ille scit quia vera dicit, ut et vos credatis. Facta sunt enim hæc ut Scriptura impleretur: Os non comminuetis ex eo. Et iterum alia Scriptura dicit: Vidébunt in quem transfixerunt.

Ps. 68, 21.

Improprium expectavi Cor meum et miseriam: et sustinui, qui simul mecum contristaretur, et non fuit: consolantem me quasiivi, et non inveni.

should pour out on us streams of mercy and grace, and that what never ceased to burn with love for us, should be a resting-place to the devout, and open as a refuge of salvation to the penitent. And therefore with angels and archangels, with thrones and dominions, and with all the hosts of the heavenly army, we sing the hymn of thy glory, evermore saying:

Joann. 19, 34.

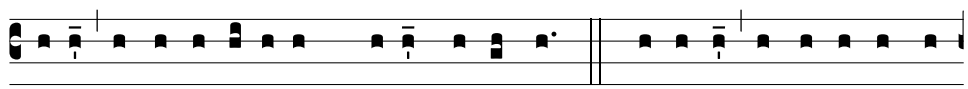

One of the soldiers opened his side with a lance, and immediately there came out blood and water.

May thy sacrament, o Lord Jesus, give us holy zeal, so that, seeing the sweetness of thy most loving heart, we may learn to despise the things of earth and love those of heaven. Who livest and reignest.

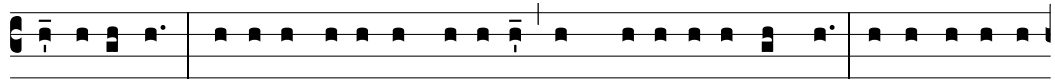

2. Thou hast fed thy servants, o Lord, with the holy gifts; comfort us ever we pray, by her intercession whose festival we celebrate.

3. May this communion, o Lord, cleanse us of sin, and, through the intercession of thy holy martyrs Gervasii and Protasi, make us sharers of heavenly salvation. Through our Lord.

Deinde Hebdomadarius facit Confessionem, quæ tota dicitur cum ψψ. seq. voce recta et paulisper depressa.

Confíteor Deo omnipoténti, beátæ Mariæ semper Vírgini, beáto Michaéli Archán- gelo, beáto Joánni Baptístæ, sanctis Apóstolis Petro et Paulo, omnibus Sanctis, et vobis fratres, quia peccávi nimis, cogitatióne, verbo et opere: mea culpa, mea culpa, mea máxima culpa. Ideo precor beátam Mariám semper Vírginem, beátum Michaélem Ar- chángelum, beátum Joánnem Baptístam, sanctos Apóstolos Petrum et Paulum, omnes Sanctos, et vos fratres, orare pro me ad Dóminum Deum nostrum.

Chorus respondet:

Misereatur tui omnipotens Deus, et dimissis peccatis tuis, perducat te ad vitam æternam. R. Amen.

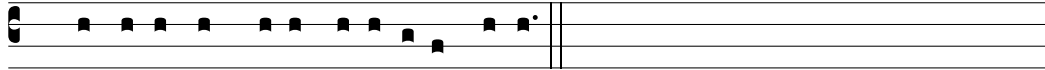

Deinde repetit Confessionem:

Confiteor Deo omnipotenti, beatæ Mariæ semper Virgini, beato Michaéli Archangelo, beato Joánni Baptístæ, sanctis Apóstolis Petro et Paulo, omnibus Sanctis, et tibi pater, quia peccávi nimis, cogitatione, verbo et opere: mea culpa, mea culpa, mea máxima culpa. Ideo precor beatam Mariam semper Virginem, beatum Michaélem Archangelum, beatum Joánnem Baptístam, sanctos Apóstolos Petrum et Paulum, omnes Sanctos, et te pater, orare pro me ad Dóminum Deum nostrum.

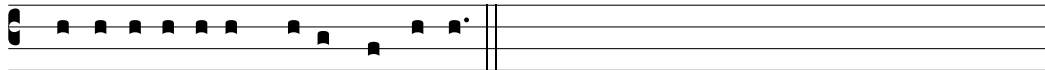

Facta Confessione a Choro, Hebdomadarius dicit:

Misereatur vestri omnipotens Deus, et dimissis peccatis vestris, perducat vos ad vitam æternam. R. Amen.

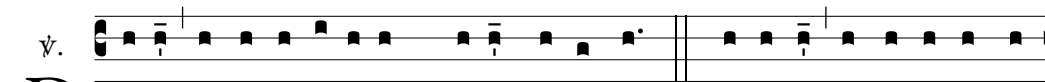

Indulgentiam, ✠ absolutiónem, et remissionem peccatorum nostrorum tribuat nobis omnipotens et miséricors Dóminus. R. Amen.
